

A friend in

To make friends with today's town traffic a car must be compact, sprightly and with good protection on all sides to save from damage in minor collisions. The Panda has all this.

Compared to its load capacity, the Panda is the car with the smallest outer dimensions: the overall length is only 3 metres and 38 centimetres. This is