

The "do it yourself"

Lift up the hatch and fold down the rear seat and you have as much space as you would find in a conventional estate car. You can load into it whatever you like. Do you go to the timber yard to buy some readycut planks? The Panda will hold more than you would expect. Are you rearing rabbits or poultry? You can buy their fodder direct from the factory, 300 kg at a