1.2 8v argument

i know how stupid this might sound but me and my m8 have been arguing over this 4 about a week.

can ya fit a normal petrol, dump valve on a standard 1.2 8valve punto???

n if ya can, wot will happen?

also if ya can, how?

ne comments will be appreciated ! fanx

ive sed if i find out i can i will for him but i wont do it if my car will just die on me lol???

Re: 1.2 8v argument

Ive heard that corsa's get the biggest benefit from them because of there types of engine. I couldnt tell you exact bhp and torque gains but its likely to be alot lot more than the punto sees 🤔

I got a trick from the States where you tip a pound of silica sand in the airbox and rev it 'ard which smoothes out the bores and gives anothe 5 - 6 bhp... 🤔

Re: 1.2 8v argument

5" slash tip jap style exhaust will get the gasses out alot faster and is likely to give gains of 10bhp on a corsa. I seen it myself on pimp my ride.

Yeah, I seen that one! Though I thought twin exit would be more like 12-15bhp?
